

A just weight and balance are the LORD'S:

Thus saith the Lord...

- Peter Confesses
Jesus as the Christ

- Matthew 16:13

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi,

- he asked his disciples, saying,

Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

- Although the disciples had grasped the fact that Jesus was God's Messiah,
 - They still had not grasped what that great fact meant.
- To them it meant something totally different from what it meant to Jesus.

- They were still thinking in terms of a conquering Messiah,

- A warrior king, who would sweep the Romans from Palestine and lead Israel to power.

- That is why Jesus commanded them to silence.

(Mark 8:30)

- There were many reasons for this command as the people were not ready to receive Him as the Messiah but instead would made Him their king.
(John 6:15)

- Before they could preach that Jesus was the Messiah, they had to learn what that meant.

- Peter's reaction shows just how far the disciples were from realizing just what Jesus meant when he claimed to be the Messiah, the Son of God.

- So Jesus began to seek to open their eyes to the fact that for him there was no way but the way of the Cross.

- No sooner had Jesus said that than Peter suddenly reacted.
 - Peter had been brought up on the idea of a Messiah of power and glory and conquest.
 - To him the idea of a suffering Messiah, was beyond belief.

- And then came the great rebuke which startles us.
- "Get behind me, Satan!"

- Why should Jesus react like that?
- It may have been His remembrance of the temptations in the wilderness.
 - There He had been tempted to take the easy way out.

- These temptations were never far from the mind of Jesus.
 - Luke gives us a clearer picture into the heart of the Master.
- "And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time" (Luke 4:13).

- Again and again the tempter must have launched this attack.
 - No one wants a cross;
 - No one wants to die in agony.

- Here the Devil strikes again.
 - Offering an easy way out.
 - But this time it comes from a beloved friend.

- The sharpness of Jesus' answer was due to the fact that Peter was playing into Satan's hand and he was totally unaware of it.

- That is why
Peter was Satan.
- Satan literally means the Adversary.
 - That is why Peter's ideas were not God's but man's.

- Satan is any force which seeks to deflect us from the way of God;
- To make us turn back from the hard way;
 - Any power which seeks to make human desires take the place of the divine.

- What made the temptation most acute was the fact that it came from one who loved him.
 - Peter could not bear to think of his dear friend dying that awful death.

- The hardest temptations of all is the one which comes from those who love us.

- What really wounded Jesus at that moment and what made him speak as he did, was that the tempter spoke to him that day through the genuine love of a dear friend.

- What did Jesus mean when He said "Get behind me, Satan!"
- Jesus was saying:
"Peter, your place is behind me, not in front of me."

- Peter is not banished
from Christ's presence;
 - Rather he is admonished to take his proper place.

- He must walk in the footsteps of Jesus.
- We are reminded of the old gospel song,
- Where He Leads Me,
I will follow.”

- In the temptations in the wilderness

Satan is banished

from the presence of Christ;

- Peter, however,

is recalled to be a follower of Christ.

- The one thing that Satan could never become is a follower of Christ;
- In his diabolical pride he could never submit to that; that is why he is Satan.

- On the other hand,
Peter might be mistaken and might fail and might sin,
- But for him
there was always the challenge and the chance to become a follower again.

- So long as a man is prepared to try to follow, even after he has fallen, there is still for him the hope of glory here and hereafter.

- Matthew 16:24

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me,

- let him deny himself,
- take up his cross, and follow me.

- Jesus drives this point home over and over.
- Again and again he confronted His disciples with the challenge of the Christian life.

- Jesus is asking us:
 - To dethrone self and to enthrone God.
 - The life of constant self-denial is the life Jesus demands.

- When we were young we used to play a game called "Follow my Leader."
- Everything the leader did, however difficult, however ridiculous, we had to copy.
 - The Christian walks in the footsteps of Christ, wherever he may lead.

- There is all the difference in the world between existing and living.
 - To exist is simply to have the lungs breathing and the heart beating.

- To live is to be alive where there is peace in the soul, joy in the heart.
- Jesus here gives us the recipe for real life.

- Jesus is informing us that the man who plays it safe loses.
- Matthew was writing somewhere between A.D. 80 and 90.
- He was writing during some of the bitterest days of persecution.

- He was saying:
"The time may well come when you can save your life by abandoning your faith;

- But if you do, you will not save your life,
you will loose life."

- The man who is faithful may die
but he dies to live;
- The man who abandons his faith for safety may live,
but he lives to die.

- If we live life in the constant search for safety, security, ease and comfort,
- And every decision is taken from a worldly point of view,
- We are losing all that makes life worth while.

- Life becomes an earthbound thing only to die and to return to the dust with no hope of eternal glory.
- The man who plays it safe ceases to be a man, for man is made in the image of God.

- Jesus is informing us that The man who risks all may appear as if he has lost it all,

- But he finds life in Christ.

- It has always been the adventurous souls, bidding farewell to security and safety, who wrote their names on history.

- Unless there had been those prepared to take risks, many a medical cure would not exist.
- Unless there were mothers prepared to take risks, no child would ever be born.
 - It is the man who is prepared to bet his life that Jesus is right who in the end finds life.

- Then Jesus speaks with warning:
 - Suppose a man plays for safety;
suppose he gains the whole world;
 - And then finds that that life is not worth living, what can he give to get life back again?"
 - And the answer is grim, as he cannot get life back again.

- In every decision of life there are some things that are irreversible.

- It is perfectly possible for a man to gain all the things he set his heart upon,
 - And then to awaken one morning to find that he has missed the most important things of all.

- The world stands for material things as opposed to God;
 - Of this let us note the implications of what Jesus said:

- No one can take them with him at the end; he can take only himself;
- And if he has sacrificed the Christ in order to get them, his regret will be bitter.

- Material things will never mend a broken heart or cheer a lonely soul.

- Finally

Jesus asks:

"What will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

- Once a man has traded his soul for worldly gain, there is no price that he can pay to get it back again.
- He has done something to himself which cannot ever be undone.

- As we are the created possession of God, we are His by right.
- And there is nothing we can give to Christ in exchange for that.

- One may give his money to Christ and withhold his life.
- One may give lip-service to Christ and withhold his life.
- In the end it is a bad bargain.

- The only possible gift Jesus will accept is ourselves;
 - There is no substitute for it.
 - Nothing less will do.

Matthew 16:27

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

- Jesus gives a warning of the coming judgment.
- Life is going somewhere, and that somewhere is judgment.
 - There is no escape from this fact.

- It is Jesus who sets the standard of judgment.
- It is also Jesus who sets the example.

John 6:38

For I came down from heaven,

not to do mine own will,

but the will of him that sent me.

- Jesus warned his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, and that there he must suffer and die.

- After the Cross
came the Resurrection.
- The Cross was not to be the end;
- It was the beginning of the unleashing of that power which was to surge throughout the whole world.

- Remember the words of Jesus,
I will build my church;
and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
(Matthew 16:18)

The doors of the church are open.

The Spirit and the Bride Say
